COOK IS DECLARED INNOCENT BY JUDGE

American Conductor's Case In Mexican Courts Not Settled, However.

Guadalajara, Mex., Nov. 25.—Judge Ramirez has acquitted James A. Cook, the American conductor, of complicity in the robbery of National Railway freight trains a year ago.

The judge announced that there was absolutely not any proof of complicity, but the prosecuting attorney, who asked a sentence of two years and 10 months for Cook, gave notice that he would exercise the right of taking the matter under advisement for five days and it is possible he will appeal to the higher courts.

Cook was arrested on August 20, 1909, and kept in jail until February 22, 1910, when he was released on $4000 bond.

The reason for the arrest of Cook was that packages were thrown from the freight trains of which he was conductor, but he claimed that he could not see this as he was in the caboose, and one of the judges tried the experiment, deciding that Cook could not be held responsible. Cook was reinstated by the National Railways when released on bond and has returned to work.

Cook's arrest and subsequent confinement in jail, even after his train crew of Mexicans had been released on bond, led to American railroad men appealing to the United States state department to secure his release and in threatening reprisals against Mexicans in the United States if he was not given more consideration.

AMUSEMENTS.

"ARIZONA."

"Arizona," time worn and time honored, was the attraction at the El Paso Thursday evening, and drew but a small house. Those who have not seen the play missed an opportunity, for it was well produced by a company capable enough. Fermin Ruiz is a splendid "Tony," about the best who has ever had the part. There is plenty of humor in the piece; also enough tragedy to suit those who like tears and heart throbs. The staging was good.

"FACING THE MUSIC."

Two record breaking houses greeted the Glass Stock company Thursday at the Crawford. Manager Rich says the crowds laughed at and applauded the many funny situations in "Facing the Music." He says: "It is one of the best comedy bills seen here in a long time and the entire company was happily cast. The new policy of introducing specialties between the acts was started yesterday and the specialties by Bert Gagnon, Edith Pollock, Gladys Bush and Bert Hodgkins were the best ever introduced by a stock company. The prices are 15c, 25c and 35c. There will be a double bill tonight. Don't forget the amateurs tonight."

"THE CITY" A GOOD SHOW.

"The City," to be seen here next Tuesday, the 25th, at the El Paso theater, is without doubt one of the leading productions on the road. It had a splendid run in New York and has met with equal success on the road. The company, headed by Norman Hackett, who was last seen here in "Classmates," is a splendid one, and the performance is elaborately staged, by very capable people. The play has the theme of an Ibsen drama and is most intensely interesting, with strong dramatic climaxes. The character of the degenerate "dope fiend," essayed by Geoffrey C. Stein, is one of the best creations of the stage today. Othman Stevens, dramatic critic of the Los Angeles Examiner, agrees to this. The play has received nothing but praise; that is, as a production well staged; its theme is left for each individual taste to criticize or approve—and it has been deserving of all that has been said about it. G. A. Martin of The Herald staff saw it recently in Tacoma, Wash., and recommends it. The same company is coming here.

"QUEEN OF MOULIN ROUGE."
Some idea of the magnitude of the musical comedy, "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge," can be gained by the fact that the organization travels in a special train of five cars, consisting of two baggage cars, two sleepers and a parlor car.

Of this show, the Springfield, Missouri, Republican declares that "the only thing suggestive about it is its name." and says: "The Queen of the Moulin Rouge," at the Landers theater yesterday before a good audience, sent the audience away declaring that one of the snappiest, breeziest and most remarkable productions ever seen here had been witnessed.

"It was one of the big successes of the season, and Springfield theatergoers of both sexes who like first class musical comedy cannot afford to miss this show. More genuine laughter was created by the funmakers than can be imagined in any theater. From the rise of the curtain on the roof of the academy Savourette, with a stage full of bright, vivacious girls, to the fall again, after a trip through Paris by night, in which some most thrilling scenes are presented back at the art school again, the audience was kept in an uproar of continual applause."

The attraction appears at the El Paso theater Wednesday, November 30, and Thursday and Friday, December 1 and 2. Seats go on sale Monday morning. The prices are 50c to $2.00.

TWO MONTHS FOR DISORDERLY WOMEN.

London, Eng., Nov. 25.—Twenty suffragists who were arrested during the night for smashing windows in the government offices, were sentenced today to two months in prison. "You disorderly women have been treated with too much leniency in the past," said the magistrate in passing sentence.
